4a Shelter Operations - the League serves as an animal shelter for Arlington County, VA and accepts any animal regardless of condition from within Arlington County. We also accept other animals from outside of Arlington County when we have the space to do so. The League has a contract with the City of Falls Church to provide the same services. Some of the animals we help are lost pets that are reunited with their owners; some are given up by owners who could no longer care for them; some are found abandoned and others were transferred to us by other rescue partners. We also take in wildlife that may be injured, orphaned or trapped and in many cases are rehabilitated and returned to the wild. The League adopts dogs, cats and small companion animals. In FY25, the League's positive outcome rate for companion animals is 95%.

4b Community Services - AWLA provides services at low or no cost to pet owners who are residents of Arlington County or the City of Falls Church. These include vaccinations, spay/neuter vouchers, supplies, and pet food at both the shelter and regular events hosted throughout the community. The League has an active volunteer program that supports its shelter and community-based work and a robust humane education program that hosts programming on site and at partner locations throughout the year. Additionally, the League provides temporary safe housing and care for animals whose owners have encountered a medical, housing, or other short term emergency.

4c Animal Control - Operates Animal Control on behalf of Arlington and is responsible for enforcing both Arlington County and State of Virginia animal care and control regulations.
